ZOOM OR IN-PERSON MEETINGS?

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE? Normally we do not send out a December newsletter because there is no meeting, but we decided to poll members regarding how they would prefer to meet in the upcoming year. Some pertinent information first: The Veterans Memorial Senior Center (which is now open weekdays) will only be open evenings on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the first half of 2022, and those evenings are already booked up. Therefore, if SAG wishes to meet in person we will have to meet at the Community Activities Building, 1400 Roosevelt Avenue (Room 1), like we did last October. Masks will still be required. We can meet for in-person meetings, all Zoom meetings or half and half. We need to know which of the three formats to chose from before Catherine Delfs starts booking programs/demos for 2022. So please reply to Catherine promptly via email csdelfs@pacbell.net or by phone (650) 369-6456 to let her know which you prefer. Again, your options are (1) All in-person meetings, (2) all Zoom meetings, or (3) half and half (every other meeting in-person or on Zoom). It is a lot of work for Ann Gahagen with all Zoom meetings, so we were hoping to “lighten her load” somewhat, but at the same time we are striving for the largest participation numbers as possible. So please take a minute RIGHT NOW and let Catherine know your first and second choices of the three options.

We had 23 Zoom participants for our November meeting, 16 members and 7 guests. Three of our members used the Blurb app Judy Kramer told us about to publish books. Rick Oldano was especially pleased with how easy it was to create and how good the finished product turned out!

SAG 2021 OFFICERS: At our in-person October meeting we voted for next year’s officers which are President Rick Oldano, Vice-President Janice Bregante, Secretary Camilla Roos, and Treasurer Dave McClure, since it would have been tricky to vote via Zoom during our November meeting. The Board of Directors remains the same with Alisan Andrews, Bryan Beck, Catherine Delfs, Marla Lehr, and LaVey Norquist.

MEMBER WELFARE: Sandra Smith is still recovering from shoulder replacement surgery done in October.

MEMORIUM: Linda Allen’s children have written and told us they hope to hold a Memorial Service at Filoli Estate later in the Spring. We will let everyone know when we have the exact date. Sympathy cards can still be sent to both her daughter Kelly Allen, P.O. Box 153, Graton, CA 95444, and son Jon Allen, P.O. Box 3335, Nederland, CO 80466. These two grown children donated a lot of Linda’s watercolor paper, canvases and other art supplies to SAG, which eight watercolorists and three oil/acrylic SAG members picked up and benefitted from.

MAIN GALLERY: Located at 883 Santa Cruz Avenue, Suite 1, Menlo Park, is open Tuesday-Saturday 11:00am-5:00pm. The current exhibit “The Holiday Show” runs through January 9th featuring art books, ceramics, glass, jewelry, mosaic paintings, photography, prints, sculpture, and woodwork. EDNA ACRI has four paintings in this exhibit, plus her sort-through bin of paintings.
