ZOOM AND IN-PERSON MEETINGS!

MARCH 25th IN PERSON – SHIRLEY GREEN (Yupo watercolor): The meeting will be at the Veterans Memorial Senior Center, Gold Star Room, at 7:00pm. We are pleased to have one of our own long-time Sequoia Art Group members give us a demonstration on painting watercolor on the plastic paper known as Yupo, which is definitely different from standard Arches watercolor paper. Shirley enjoys her home studio in Woodside, CA. She loves color and contrast which is strongly depicted in her still life, floral and landscape artwork. As a teacher, she enjoys sharing this passion with her students, as well as others who love watercolor. She studied under Sandy Delahanty, Judy Morris, Joyce Faulknor, Guy Magallanes, Arleta Pech, Susan Harrison-Tustain, Susan Winton, Jeannie Vodden, Kathleen Alexander and Jane Hofstetter. Visit her website at <http://shirleygreen.net>.

To enter the Popular Vote, you must bring your painting/photograph to our in-person meeting on March 25th. We had 14 participants at our February 25th Zoom meeting.

DOWNTOWN REDWOOD CITY LIBRARY – MARCH & APRIL: The Redwood City Library will feature SAG husband and wife duo Jay and Laurel Bergman. Jay has his black and white photographs on the first stairway landing and Laurel has her watercolor paintings on the upper landing.

MEMORIAL DATE SET: We have been notified that a memorial service for BARBARA TODD will be on May 21, 2022, Saturday, at 11:00am at the Congregational Church at 751 Alameda de las Pulgas, Belmont, CA. A reception will follow. The church staff will provide a live video feed for those who can't make it. The family would like an idea of how many people will be attending (for reception planning), so call Catherine Delfs at (650) 369-6456 to let her know if you plan to attend in May, and then she will pass on the list to her Barbara's brother James.

MEMBER WELFARE: Sandra Smith is still recovering from her shoulder surgery last Fall, Nicole Joshi continues to recover from a rear-ended car accident she had in Michigan late last year with back pain preventing her from doing her nursing job, and Camilla Roos recently had breast cancer surgery with news that cancer hadn't spread and she will not need radiation nor chemo (taking pills instead). Two SAG member's spouses have had knee replacement surgery recently – Ann Gahagen's husband Dave (one knee), and Marlene Cohen's husband Guy (both knees). We wish them all our best.

MAY ART SHOW CANCELED: We put out a request in our February Bark for volunteer(s) to head up or help with the Student Division of our in-person art show this May, and not one member responded, so a phone vote was taken of our Officers and Board of Directors and it was decided that the nearly $3,000 total cost of putting on our annual show was not justifiable with only 120* adult paintings (*usual number of adult entries). The Student Division usually runs 250 to 300 entries. We are considering another virtual (members only) Art Show next Fall with more categories and awards.

SWA PROGRAMS VIA ZOOM: Check in for Zoom connection on the Society of West Coast Artists website.
