ZOOM AND IN-PERSON MEETINGS!

APRIL 22 at 7:00pm (4th not 5th Friday) ZOOM – JOE DEKCKER (photography, advanced composition): Joe Decker is a nature photographer, author and educator living in Northern California. Self-taught early in his photographic career, Joe began studying with other masters of nature photography in the late 1990s, including Galen Rowell, Richard Knepp and Bill Atkinson. In 1999 Joe published his award-winning body of work October, entirely taken from images created during that month in the Eastern Sierra. In 2003, one of Joe’s landscape photographs,

Granite and Snow, Little Lakes Valley, was “highly honored” by the Nature’s Best Foundation at the National Museum of History, part of the Smithsonian. In 2008, the National Park Service named him an artist-in-residence at Petrified Forest National Park in Arizona. In 2010, Hurtigrunten awarded him an artist residency in the Disko Bay area of West Greenland, and in 2011 followed up with an additional residency in Svalbard. In 2012 Flatbooks acquired the rights to publish Joe’s book “The Tuesday Composition.”

To enter the Popular Vote, send a digital image of your entry to Ann Gahagen at amgahagen@gmail.com no later than Wednesday, April 20th. We had 18 participants at our March 25th in-person meeting.

UPCOMING SAG PROGRAMS: From the poll vote, our membership wishes to meet half-and-half (in-person and Zoom alternately) for at least the first half of 2022.

- May 27: Dean Hoornaert (oil wildlife demo) in-person at Veterans Memorial Building, Gold Star Room
- June 24: TBA via Zoom

SAG ANNUAL DUES: Your 2022 SAG dues became payable last January: $30 for a Full Member, $15 for Associate Member (spouse or former member who still wishes to receive a monthly newsletter). Make your check payable to Sequoia Art Group, and mail it to our Treasurer Dave McClure at 702 California Way, Emerald Hills, CA 94062-4007.

DISPLAY PANEL RENTALS: Because of our new non-profit organization status, we no longer rent panels to the public. Our panels can be loaned to SAG members and their friends participating in events together. There is no charge for the panels, but a donation to SAG would be appreciated, but is not required. The city of Redwood City allows SAG free storage for the panels, so we strive to keep a healthy relationship with the city. Therefore, the panels must be coordinated with our Panel Chairman, Dave McClure, for pickup and delivery. SAG events such as the annual Art Show take precedence over the use of the panels. Number of panels on loan at that time may be reduced.

POPULAR VOTE RULE CHANGED: Our Officers and Board of Directors voted recently to change the length of time annual winners remain in the Winners Circle from three to two years. This is if you haven’t won 1st, 2nd or 3rd in Winners Circle for two years, you bounce back to Popular Vote or Photography Sections. Otherwise everyone eventually ends up in Winners Circle, leaving not enough competitors in lower categories (like we have with Photography category right now).
