FEBRUARY 24 (Friday) MEMBERS ART SUPPLY GARAGE SALE AND INNA ZATULOVSKY (Felt Painting) 7:00pm, Gold Star Room of Veterans Memorial Senior Center:

Members have been asking for an art supply garage sale and since Inna’s presentation will only take 30-40 minutes, it was decided to combine these two events in one evening. Bring excess art, framing, photography, etc. supplies that you want to find new homes for (either for free or small fee) and we will have tables set up to display your items. During the voting and refreshment break, we will give you an additional 15 minutes to “man your items,” and for other members to select items.

Then we will have Inna present her demonstration, and afterward if members still want to check garage sale items, they may continue to do so. You must take any unclaimed items home with you at end of this evening. Bring your painting/photograph for Popular Vote to this meeting.

Inna Zatulovsky was born in Kiev, Ukraine, and was educated as a mechanical engineer. She worked at the Semiconductor Manufacturing Company in Silicon Valley for 23 years before retiring. She is best known for her floristic collages, but loves to explore different art forms. She heard about dry felt painting from one of these artists in the San Jose area, but took a master class in the country of Georgia from a famous artist. Georgian shepherds were using felt as bedding, tent coverings and coats to keep themselves warm, then someone decided to “get creative” with this material. Inna has a studio at Art Bias, 1700 Industrial Road, San Carlos.

BOUNCING BACK TO POPULAR VOTE SECTION: We have a number of members who haven’t won either 1st, 2nd or 3rd Place in the Winners Circle for two years running (this used to be three years and was changed as too few members were left in Popular Vote and Photography sections), so they have to revert back to the Popular Vote section in 2023. They are: Laurel Bergman, Anne Foster, Marla Lehr and Rick Oldano. The 2022 First Place winners in the Popular Vote (Camilla Roos) and Photography (Marlene Cohen) move up to Winners Circle for at least two years.

DECISION REGARDING POSSIBLE ART SHOW MAY 18-21: We haven't had an in-person May Art Show for three years and our membership has dropped by 1/3 plus none of us is getting any younger. It takes a lot of work to pick up panels, man entry tables on Thursday for hours, put up panels and have the show judged Friday morning, hang 250+ items Friday afternoon, man the show Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Every member should sign up for at least two of these jobs. If we do not get 25 volunteers on Friday Feb. 24th, or at the latest March 1st (you can email or phone Catherine Delfs or Dave McClure), we very likely will have to cancel this show.

If undelivered, please return to:

SABLE BRUSH AWARD WINNER: For those who were not at our Installation/Award potluck luncheon, the SAG officers decided to usurp the President’s authority to select our annual Sable Brush Award winner and instead they selected outgoing President Rick Oldano as 2022 Sable Brush Award recipient for his unprecedented three years as SAG President, plus for continuing to serve through personal hardship with all that his wife Carmen’s multiple health problems. In fact, he could not attend our Installation/Awards event because his wife once again had last minute doctor’s appointment that Friday! His past President’s gift was a leather belt/holster (to hang photography equipment). Even though Rick lives so far away now (Pleasanton), we hope to see him occasionally, perhaps after visiting his mother who lives in Belmont.
