JUNE 23 (Friday) GRETA WATERMAN(oil painting technique)

7:00pm, Gold Star Room at Veterans Memorial Senior Center: Greta will explain the inspiration behind her painting style and demonstrate how she approaches the female figure these days. She has lived an adventure-filled life as a model, professional merchandiser, florist, realtor, and painter. After graduating NYU, Greta got her Masters degree at Fordham Business School. From there she moved into the exciting career of modeling and when that career winded down, she still involved herself in extensive travel by becoming a professional merchandizer for a variety of clothing companies. Eventually, pining for the ambiance of the west coast, Greta made the move to Half Moon Bay, CA, where she is a licensed realtor. Throughout this whole time, Greta has never stopped painting. She has exhibited in various shows domestically as well as internationally. Just as her life has gone through many different stages, her painting style has evolved and changed over the years with each new phase of her life. Greta has a studio at Art Bias, 1700 Industrial Road, in San Carlos, CA.

Bring your painting/photograph for Popular Vote to this meeting.

REFRESHMENTS REMINDER: Members Primi John and Margo Bangert are signed up to bring refreshments to our June 23rd meeting. We always appreciate those who volunteer to do this.

REDWOOD CITY LIBRARY SAG GROUP EXHIBIT JULY-AUGUST: The following members will be participating in the semi-annual exhibit in July and August: Margo Bangert, Karen Hart, Lily Huriman, Premi John, Nicole Joshi, Marla Lehr, and Sonny Mencher.

EXHIBIT LOCATIONS NEEDED: Recently Catherine Delfs and Marla Lehr researched several pre-Covid exhibit areas, plus possible new sites. Unfortunately the Woodside Library was remodeled recently and no longer exhibits artwork, as well as the Burlingame Library. We are waiting to hear back from two prospects in the North Fair Oaks area. The San Mateo Library and San Mateo City Hall are both soliciting artists/photographers for 2024, but artists need to be juried in via computer with seven jpegs of your artwork before July 17, 2023. Interested individual artists need to submit on their own. In the meantime, if any member knows of a bank, restaurant, beauty salon, real estate office, etc. where we can display our members’ paintings/photographs, please contact Catherine Delfs at (650) 369-6456.
